Experimental free delivery in towns and villages has shown a reduction in gross receipts in a majority of effices. By November 1 next rural free delivery will be tested in about thirty States. There was a reduction in the number of dismissals of letter-carriers, which evidences the high standard of discipline. COURT OF CLAIMS VACANCY.

SUDGE TURNER, OF GEORGIA, LOOMING UP AS

Washington, Nov. 7 (Special).-The talk about Representative Turner, of Georgia, as the successor of the late Chief Justice Richardson of the United States Court of Claims has this foundation, it is earned on good authority by a Tribune correspond-

The names of Secretary Herbert and Postmastereneral Wilson have been most prominently menioned, and it has been supposed by many persons ere that one of these Cabinet Ministers would ertainly receive the nomination. Mr. Herbert is apparently more considered in the inner circles, long away from his law practice, engaged in active Mr. Wilson, too, who has a number of dends desirous of his getting the honor, has been political and Administrative service of ident preferred Senator Lamar to lawyers Court of the United States do not think mind. It is said by those who are ndly to Mr. Wilson that it is not certain he intment. He might be deterred by one or two considerations: First, while the honor is considerable the salary is only $4,560; second, if the salary were a temptation Mr. Wilson is aware of the fact that a number of Democratic Senators threaten not to vote to confirm any nominee of the President during the residue of his term who shall have taken a prominent part in the National Democratic movement. Nevertheless, it is not stated by any friend of the distinguished West Virginian that he would decline the honor if tendered.

Mr. Wilson himself suggests the name of Representative Turner, of Georgia. One strong point which is urged by one of Judge Turner's friends is this: He burned his bridges behind him at the beginning of the campaign, declining a renomination, which he could have had without difficulty because of his adherence to sound-money ideas. As he has not made himself obnoxious to the silver Senators, who are all his personal friends, by his course since the Chicago. Convention, although his speeches at the late session of Congress attest his opposition to the silver heresy, it is urged that he would be speedily confirmed, unless all nominations of "gold bugs" are held up.

A new probability for the vacant place is reported from Richmond, in the person of Judge Keith, president of the Virginia Supreme Court. The Judge is regarded as one of the ablest jurists in the South, and it is said that President Cleveland has said that if the appointment goes to Virginia he will be the man selected. Judge Keith bolted the Chicago platform and nominee.

officers, and on this important subject says:

I believe that a disbursing officer should either be required to furnish bonds to cover all advances or be relieved of giving any security at all. In the latter case he would be placed on his honor, which might be the better plan, but in the former the requirement of a security in dollars and cents would make it a purely business transaction, and this should be kept in view to the extent of requiring a security for the full sum of the dollars involved.
It seems incongruous to hold the officer on his bond for a certain part of advances and on his honor for the balance.

Auditors should be authorized by law to expenies

the balance.

Auditors should be authorized by law to examine the office, books and papers of disbursing officers, either at stated times or whenever the auditor should deem it necessary. This suggestion is not intended as a reflection upon any disbursing officer, but is offered as a safeguard which is right and proper from a business standpoint, and would tend to prevent a repetition of losses which have occurred to the Government in the past in the way mentioned.
